Feature Key: CDF-16

Summary: TASK 86 for CDF

Description: Description for Task 86 in CDF

Acceptance Criteria: Acceptance criteria for issue type Defect in CDF with issue key DIS-3-3

Strengths:

None

Improvement Areas:

- The acceptance criteria are missing.
- The acceptance criteria are not in Given/When/Then format.
- There is no information about the expected behavior or outcome.

Revised Version:

Given a defect with issue key DIS-3-3 exists in CDF,

When a user encounters the defect,

Acceptance_criteria_Report

Then the system should [describe expected behavior and resolution of the defect, including specific outcomes and validation steps]. For example:

Then the system should display an error message clearly explaining the issue.

And the system should log the error for debugging purposes.

And the user should be able to continue their work after acknowledging the error.

Feature Key: CDF-21

Summary: TASK 122 for CDF

Description: Description for Task 122 in CDF

Acceptance Criteria: Acceptance criteria for issue type Story in CDF with issue key DIS-2-6

Strengths:

None

Improvement Areas:

- The acceptance criteria are missing and not provided in the prompt.
- Acceptance Criteria need to be in Given/When/Then format.
- Acceptance criteria should be clear, concise, and easily understandable by both technical and non-technical stakeholders.
- The acceptance criteria should be testable and verifiable.
- The scope and boundaries of the acceptance criteria should be defined clearly.

Revised Version:

Since the acceptance criteria are missing, I cannot provide a revised version. A proper acceptance criteria should follow the Given/When/Then format and cover all the necessary scenarios. Example: Given I am a user with valid credentials, When I log in to the system, Then I should be redirected to the dashboard.
